- I understand that any membership awarded free by the company for any reason it may serve will not be valid to resell the business membership, No Cash Value is provided for any FREE COMPLEMENTS given by IDCI. Based on your own country of membership residual income maybe different. For example, you're residing in Canada; your focused is Domestic Student So your PV to PV Residual incomes are stronger in terms of making your earning. But if you reside in other country, meaning outside Canada your main focus is to bring international student, so your residual income is stronger in terms of international student. When your membership is inside Canada, you don't make a residual income for international student you make it only for local student. While if you leave outside Canada you can't make residual income for local student. Residual payment varies upon your IDCI membership. For People who are living inside Canada their main residual income would be coming from Domestic Students, but for people who are independent Business Owner living outside Canada their main residual income will be coming from International Students.
- I agree and understand that I will be paid only with my successful clients, 6 weeks after student's Start Date and with the 30 days' school student attendance Policy.
- I agree that I must provide my SIN to IDCI Finance Department in order to process my payout and release my cheque.
- I agree to coordinate with my Parent PV for all transactions related to IDCI
- I agree and understand that I have to make some arrangements for my international student clients as well as to pick them in the airport, pictures, testimonial video and guide them for first 90 days in Canada.
- All old unpaid clients due to not sending invoice to Finance Department must be cleared within 6 months from the student start date to be considered as a valid student payout and to get compensated. Residual Income is transferable only to your own immediate family member who wish to continue your business only for 1st Generation IBO member.
- As an IBO, you are not allowed to create, produce or re-produce any IDCI materials that will be discuss and distributed to any IBO member without the approval of the head office.
